

Bryan Roth with EnerTech Labs is offering free webinars to members of the Ohio School Bus Mechanics Association! The webinars are offered three different days and times to try and accommodate as many mechanics schedules as possible. Past attendees of this webinar have found them to be extremely informative and useful.

The webinar will discuss fuel and gasoline quality and how it impacts the operation and maintenance of school bus fleets. In short it will cover:

- H2O in fuel/gasoline
- Clogging of DPF
- Coking and clogging of EGR
- Regens
- Biodiesel in Fuel
- Ethanol in Gasoline
- Gelling of fuel

"We will discuss our product line and its success in addressing each of these issues. We look forward to speaking with any Ohio Bus Mechanic that is interested in helping them solve these problems that exist with today's fleets."
